HORNSEY HISTORICAL SOCIETY, (HHS) covers the areas historically in the former Hornsey Parish, later Borough: Hornsey, Crouch End, Muswell Hill, Harringay, parts of Highgate and Stroud Green, plus Bounds Green and Wood Green.

TRANSPORT: Buses W3, 41 and 91 stop near The Old Schoolhouse. Parking is available locally, except between 11.00 and 12.00 (check CPZ signs).

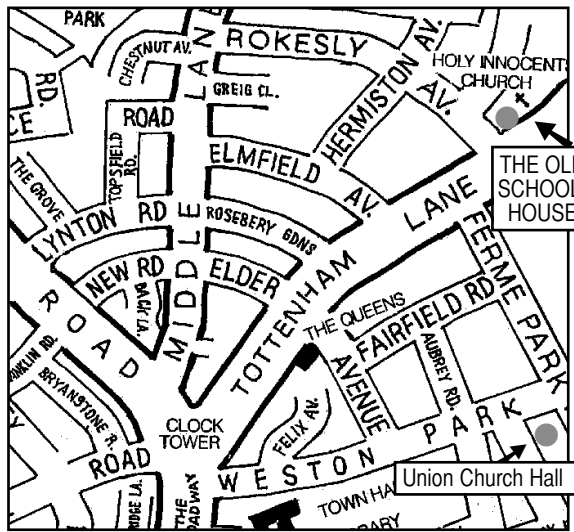

LOCAL HISTORY MATERIAL: We have a wide range of published material in our shop about the history of Hornsey, such as books, maps and postcards. On Fridays our Archive Volunteers are there to help you with enquiries or any research.

BENEFITS FOR MEMBERS: Quarterly newsletters • Annual award-winning Bulletin • Monthly lectures • Events and Outings

FURTHER INFORMATION:

- Visit our website
www.hornseyhistorical.org.uk
- Come to The Old Schoolhouse when we are open
- Phone us on 020 8348 8429
- Email us on
hornseyhistoricalsecretary@gmail.com

LINKS: are maintained with Bruce Castle Museum and with local history societies. Especially close links are maintained with groups such as the Friends of Hornsey Church Tower (FoHCT) and working to conserve and develop the ancient church tower in Hornsey High Street. We give relevant advice on local conservation and environmental matters including the Conservation Area Advisory Committees (CAACs). Several community groups meet at The Old Schoolhouse.

GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATIONS 2018 (GDPR)

We hold your personal data securely on the Society's computerised database, which is accessible only by the Officers of the Society, and in hard copy by the Membership Secretary. The data is used solely for the purpose of communication between the Society and its membership, eg. sending your Bulletin and Newsletters, notice of our Annual General Meetings, and occasional other information. No data will ever be passed to any other person or organisation.

We shall assume we have your permission to continue to hold your data unless you contact the Membership Secretary at The Old Schoolhouse, 136 Tottenham Lane, London N8 7EL (or hornseyhistoricalmembership@gmail.com) asking us to delete your information from our records.
